PRAYER:

Dear Lord, I know that I do not understand many of Your teachings. If this is because I am not one of Thy disciples, because I am still a "natural man", and have never truly been born again, please help me this day to become one of Your own, so that I can understand Your teachings. Lead me to the person You have chosen to show me the way. If I really am Your own, then help me to have ears that can hear Your message for me—today, and every day as I study Your Word for myself. “Be careful that none of you fails to respond to the grace which God gives, for if he does there can very easily spring up in him a bitter spirit which is not only bad in itself but can also poison the lives of many others.”

-- Hebrews 12:15 (Phillips)

PRAYER:

O, Lord God! I pray that You will show me how very great are the sins for which You have forgiven me. For then I know that I would realize that anything someone else could do to me would be infinitely small by comparison! Lord, help me truly to forgive everyone from my heart -- regardless of how great is the wrong done to me. Help me to be reconciled with everyone on earth, so that there might not spring up in me a bitter spirit which will keep me from witnessing effectively for You. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

"I . . . sent you out to battle for the right armed only with your faith and a clear conscience. Some, alas, have laid these simple weapons contemptuously aside, and, as far as their faith is concerned, have run their ships on the rocks."

-- 1 Timothy 1:18, 19 (Phillips)

PRAYER:

O, Dear Lord! Help me to identify every item which has come between me and You, or between me and another. Help me to begin now making these things right, not only with You, but with others—even those who were mostly in the wrong, those who might not understand, and those who have moved away; and even if it involves money I don't have—because I know You are able to supply what is necessary for me to get right with everyone. If I did give them up, that would God do in return? What inward qualities might I be able to develop through giving up these rights? How would these qualities help me in spreading the gospel?

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

“The angels from their thrones on high look down on us with wondering eye, That where we are but passing guests We build such strong and sturdy nests; But where we hope to dwell for aye We scarce take heed one stone to lay!”

PRAYER:

Dear Lord, forbid that at anytime I should allow the cares of this life to crowd out the work that you would have me to do for You --work which counts for eternity, and the world to come. Help me to set my face like a flint so that radio, television, movies, magazines, parties, school activities, etc., will not keep me from being fruitful for You. Defeat the efforts of Satan to sidetrack me from all the will of God for me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

“Isn't it strange that princes and kings, and clowns that caper in sawdust rings, and common folk--like you and me, are builders for eternity? To each is given a bag of tools, a shapeless mass and a book of rules, and each must make, ere life is flown, a stumbling-block or a stepping-stone.”

PRAYER:

Lord, my Lord, I thank You for the talents You have given me to use for You.

I thank You that You have given me gifts according to my ability to use them. Father, I pray that I may be faithful in using all of these gifts for You, so that I may not have to be ashamed before You at Your coming. For Jesus' sake, Amen.
