

BETWEEN THE TESTAMENTS

Between the end of the Old Testament and the beginning of the New, about 400 years elapsed. This period is called the “four hundred silent years,” because during this time there was no direct message from God to His people. However, there were events which vitally affected the Bible story. Study about these events below:

A. Events at the Close of the Old Testament Era:

1. Through the seventy years' captivity, Babylon had caused the Jews to realize and turn from their great sins of idolatry and immorality, so they would be a pure nation, ready to receive the Messiah when He would come.
2. When Persia succeeded Babylon in world leadership, she had permitted the Jews to return to their own land, rebuild their temple and the city of Jerusalem, and enjoy religious freedom and some degree of self-government under their high priest. This continued for about 100 years after the close of the Old Testament story.

B. Events Between the Testaments:

1. Alexander the Great of Greece united the world under one common language. He conquered the Jewish homeland in 333 B. C. and planted the Greek language there. Under Alexander's rule, many of the Jews were moved to cities in Egypt where Greek culture flourished. In 285 B. C. a group of Jews who had settled in Alexandria, Egypt, translated the Old Testament into the Greek language. This translation, called the Septuagint (LXX), was studied carefully by many Jews everywhere, so that there was an increasing expectation in all nations of the coming Messiah.
2. In the conflict which followed the division of Alexander's empire at his death, the Jewish homeland eventually fell to Syria in 198 B. C. This country made the great geographical divisions referred to in the New Testament: Galilee, Samaria, Judea, and Perea. Later, Antiochus Epiphanes tried to supplant the Jewish religion with Greek idolatry, but loyal Jews revolted. After a long struggle, the Maccabees led the Jews in gaining national independence in 142 B. C. This continued until 63 B. C.

C. Events Just Before the New Testament Era:

1. In 63 B. C., the Romans under Pompey took possession of the Jewish homeland, made the Jews a part of their great world government, and linked them to their great world-system of roads. Some Jews became Roman citizens.
2. The Romans still ruled the world when the New Testament story began.

QUESTIONS FOR ME TO THINK ABOUT:

1. For what great event did each of these nations prepare the world?

2. If Jesus had been born even 100 years sooner, what might have happened?

GREAT FACTS ABOUT THE NEW TESTAMENT

The New Testament has 27 books, that were written in the Greek language by 8 or 9 different writers, during a period of 50 years (A. D. 50 to 100), concerning events that happened during about 100 years (4 B. C. to A. D. 100). It includes several types of literature: Biography, poetry, history, letters, sermons, and prophecy. Its books may be classified in five great divisions, as follows:

Gospels: 4 books: Matthew - John, written by those whose names they bear.

History: 1 book: Acts, written by Luke.

Pauline Letters: 13 or 14 books: Romans - Philemon, written by Paul; and possibly (if not probably) Hebrews, the authorship of which is uncertain.

General Letters: 7 or 8 books: Hebrews, the authorship of which is uncertain; and James - Jude, written by those whose names they bear.

Prophecy: 1 book: Revelation, written by John the beloved disciple.

The greatest fact about the New Testament is that it centers in Christ. While the central theme of the Old Testament is "Christ is coming," that of the New Testament is "Christ has come."

INTRODUCTION TO NEW TESTAMENT GEOGRAPHY

Before you begin the study of the New Testament itself, you will need to have an understanding of some basic facts about the land in which its story begins. Study Map 1 and seek to master the important facts as follows:

A. The Names of the Land:

1. The area pictured on the map was known in early Old Testament days as the land of Canaan, after the Canaanites, outstanding inhabitants of the area at that time (Genesis 12:5, 6).
2. Later, it was called the Promised Land, since it was promised to Abraham and his descendants as their national homeland (Genesis 15:7, Deuteronomy 27:3).
3. After Abraham's descendants conquered the Canaanites and took possession of the land, it was called Israel because of their national name, the Israelites (See Genesis 32:28, Joshua 11:23 for the origin of this name).
4. When the nation Israel was divided in the days of Solomon's son, the northern part was called Israel and the southern part was called Judah. After the northern part was carried into captivity, the southern part became known as Judea, since only Judah remained there. This name was still used for the southern part in the days of Christ (Ezra 5:8, Matthew 2:1).
5. Three hundred or more years after the time of Christ, the area began to be called Palestine, after the ancient Philistines who inhabited the coastal section of the land (Genesis 13:17, Exodus 15:15). It is by this name that the whole area is commonly known today.
6. In 1948, a small part of this area was given back to Abraham's descendants, the Jews (2 Kings 16:6), as their national homeland. It is called by their ancient name, Israel.

B. Outstanding Geographical Features of the Land:

1. Learn the names and locations of the following:
 - a. The sea on which the land borders.
 - b. The mountain that juts out into the sea.
 - c. The three important bodies of water within the land.
 - d. The important river that connects these bodies of water.
 - e. The four main geographical divisions during the time of Christ.
2. Be able to draw in the dotted lines that separate these divisions.
3. From a relief map, tell:
 - a. What is the chief characteristic of this land?
 - b. What makes it fertile?

QUESTIONS FOR ME TO THINK ABOUT:

1. How much of the earth's surface is included in this map?

2. Why is this tiny spot so important in world history?

PRE-EXISTENCE (ETERNAL)

In the Life of Jesus, there are two things that are different from the lives of all others: (1) What happened before His birth, and (2) what happened after His death. Study now in detail the things that happened before His birth:

A. "The Word" Described: Read John 1:1-5

1. When did the Person who is called "The Word" live? John 1:1a

2. With Whom did He live? John 1:1, 2

3. What work did He do then? John 1:3

B. The Word's Action: Read John 1:14

1. What unusual thing did "The Word" do? John 1:14a

2. Who is the only one who fits the description given above, who ever did this? (THINK!)

QUESTIONS FOR ME TO THINK ABOUT:

1. What did it cost Jesus to leave heaven? Philippians 2:5-8

2. If Jesus was willing to give up all this for me, what should I be willing to give up for Him?

THE ANCESTRY AND INFANCY OF JESUS

Matthew 1 - 2; Luke 1 - 2

In tracing the earthly life of Jesus, it is necessary to begin far back in His ancestry. As you study, notice why this is so important; and then study the first events of His earthly life:

A. The Ancestry in Matthew: Matthew 1:1-17

1. From what two important Old Testament characters is Jesus' ancestry traced in Matthew 1:1?

2. Glance through this genealogy (list of ancestors), listing the names of any others you recognize:

3. Which of Jesus' earthly parents' ancestors are listed in Matthew? Matthew 1:16

4. Who begat (became the physical father of) Joseph? Matthew 1:16a

B. The Ancestry in Luke: Luke 3:23-38

1. In Luke, of whom is Joseph said to be the son? Luke 3:23

2. Notice that this ancestry is the same as that in Matthew, after it reaches what important person in Luke 3:31? _____
3. It goes back farther, however, to what person in Luke 3:38?

4. Since the genealogies in Matthew and Luke are different, what must we conclude concerning them? (THINK! In what sense could Joseph have been called "The son of Heli"? Compare this with a similar relationship in 1Samuel 24:16).

C. The Infancy of Jesus: The following seems to be the order of events connected with Jesus' infancy. Read the passages in the order given, noting exactly what the Bible says about each event, and tracing events on Map 2.
